Library Staff Meeting Date Set

We have decided on Wednesday, November 28 from 1:00-4:00 for our fall library staff meeting. The meeting will be here at the County Office in Yreka in the Siskiyou Room. Two representatives from Follett Software Company will be here to answer questions about Circ+ and Destiny, and we'll have several other topics of discussion on the agenda. If you have questions about your day-to-day Follett use, bright ideas or frustrations; bring them to the meeting! We look forward to seeing you.

Watch for your email invitation, and we'll be sending out reminders as the date draws near. If you have questions or want to RSVP, call or email

Anne Hinchcliff: 842-8430 or anneh@sisnet.ssku.k12.ca.us or Cheryl Hayden: 842-8428 or chayden@sisnet.ssku.k12.ca.us

Featured Author: Lois Ehlert

Lois Ehlert is the talented author and illustrator of many acclaimed books for young children. Her distinctive style of artwork makes her books stand out from the rest with bold colors and designs. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, and the Layton School of Art. She has also worked as an art teacher, free-lance illustrator, and designer. Her work has appeared in countless publications and has received numerous awards and honors. In addition to creating books, Lois has produced toys, games, clothes for children, posters, brochures, catalogs, and banners. Born and raised in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, she lives in Milwaukee.

We are pleased to offer these Lois Ehlert books in our collection here at SCOE:

- Eating the Alphabet
- Feathers for Lunch
- Growing Vegetable Soup
- Market Day: A Story Told with Folk Art
- Moon Rope: A Peruvian Folk Tale
- Red Leaf, Yellow Leaf
- Snowballs

We also have a kit entitled: "Getting to Know Lois Ehlert" in the lending library. This kit includes a video introducing Lois as well as an assortment of 19 of her titles and a teacher's guide. Introduce your students to a talented author and writer!
